3.

Defendant Foothills Brokerage Inc. (hereinafter “Defendant Foothills”), is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Tennessee, who is subject to the jurisdiction and venue of this Honorable Court due to their out of state motorist employee, Defendant Moore, who at the time of the incident in question forming the basis of this Complaint was the employee of Defendant Foothills acting on his master business and it is liable for his actions under the doctrine of respondent superior.

Defendant Foothills may be served through its registered agent, David Cawood at P.O. Box 51445 in Knoxville, TN 37950.

4.

On or about April 9, 2021, Plaintiff was traveling southbound along Interstate 85.

5.

On or about said date, Defendant Moore was operating an 18-wheeler owned by Defendant Foothills as he similarly traveled southbound along Interstate 85. Defendant Moore caused a collision when he attempted to merge into the lane Plaintiff was occupying slamming into the rear of her vehicle.

6.

Defendant Foothills had knowledge that Defendant Moore was incompetent to drive and allowed him to have access to the motor vehicle anyway. Accordingly, Defendant Foothills is liable for the negligence of Defendant Moore.

7.

Plaintiff shows that the aforesaid collision was proximately caused by the negligence of Defendant Moore, and said acts of negligence of Defendant Moore include, but are not limited to the following:

- (a) Immediately prior to the aforesaid collision, Defendant Moore failed to maintain lane, in violation of O.C.G.A. § 40-6-48;
- (b) Immediately prior to the aforesaid collision, Defendant Moore failed to keep a safe distance, in violation of O.C.G.A. § 40-6-49;
- (c) Immediately prior to the aforesaid collision, Defendant Moore was inattentive to traffic conditions, failing to notice Plaintiff was traveling straight;

- (d) Immediately prior to the aforesaid collision, Defendant Moore failed to take evasive action;
- (e) Immediately prior to the aforesaid collision, Defendant Moore failed to warn;
- (f) Immediately prior to the aforesaid collision, Defendant Moore failed to keep a proper lookout; and
- (g) Any and all acts of negligence which may be shown at trial.

8.

Due to the force of impact of the collision caused by Defendant Moore, Plaintiff suffered numerous and painful injuries which required medical treatment.

9.

As a result of the Defendant Moore's negligence, Plaintiff suffered injuries that include but are not limited to: cervical disc disorder, cervical radiculopathy, lumbar radiculopathy, cervicalgia, sprain of left shoulder, sprain to left knee, anxiety disorder, dizziness and giddiness, other insomnia and post-traumatic headache. The treatment and lost wages of said injuries resulted in special damages in excess of $337,264.95.

10.

Defendants are both liable for the injuries to the Plaintiff due to their acts of negligence which are the proximate cause of the injuries sustained by these Plaintiff.

11.

Defendant Moore and Defendant Foothill are indebted to Plaintiff for past, present and future treatment expenses; past, present and future pain and suffering; past, present and future loss of ability to enjoy life; expenses of litigation, and all other damages allowed by Georgia law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully demands as follows:

- (a) A trial by jury;
- (b) Compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial; and
- (c) Such other relief as this Court may deem fair and reasonable.
